Ever felt like saying you just can’t?
Young Women’s Program (YWP) provides opportunities to prove that you absolutely CAN.

Ever feel like no-one cares and no one listens?
YWP staff are committed to showing you that people do care and that your ideas are important.

Ever been made to feel as though you don’t belong?
YWP creates a comfortable environment that promotes peer acceptance and friendship.

Ever felt powerless, like adults are always deciding what’s important to you?
YWP provides experiences where adults support young people to consider options and make a decision based on what is important and meaningful to you.

Ever attended a program where you are not empowered to have a voice and contribute to the program development?
YWP is flexible and adapts to individual needs. We encourage you to have a voice and are always happy to make a compromise.
